

SOUTHFIELD SCHOOL SUMMER READING LIST 2019

Lower School

Students entering 1st grade:

Reading to young children is a superb way to prepare them for school. We encourage parents to provide a daily reading time for their children during the summer. The number of interesting writers and illustrators for this age group is very large. Some suggestions are listed below.

Frog and Toad (any of these books)-A. Lobel
Biscuit (any of these books)-Capucilli
Any books by Ezra Jack Keats
Any books by Mo Willems
Shel Silverstein poetry books

Little Bear (any of these books)-Minarik
Puppy Mudge (any of these books)-Rylant
Any books by Eric Carle
National Geographic Leveled Readers
Any books by Dr. Seuss

Students entering 2nd grade:

Emerging readers should spend a minimum of 15 minutes per day reading independently. As children move from beginning to independent readers, it is important to remember that they still need and enjoy having an adult read aloud to them. Some suggestions are listed below.

Owl Diaries (any of these books)-Elliot
Mercy Watson (any of these books)-DiCamillo
Ivy and Bean (any of these books)-Barrows
Rainbow Magic Fairies (any of these books)-Meadows
Any books by Dan Gutman
